

The Vth International Online-Conference “Strategies of Multicultural Education on the Back of Global Education: Practices and Prospects”
October, 28 (Monday)
13.00 - 13.40	Participants’ registration	UdSU Library* Lobby (1 st floor)	The aims of the conference: - to underline similarities and differences of international education strategies in Russia and abroad; - to highlight some tendencies of international education development in near-term prospects (modern teaching methods); - to generalize promising areas of foreign languages teaching for professional purposes. (more details are available in a separate conference programme)
14.00 - 15.30	Opening of the online-conference. Plenary session	UdSU Library Assembly Hall (1 st floor)
October, 29 (Tuesday)
10.00 - 12.00	Working sessions	UdSU Library rooms 206, 307, Assembly Hall (1 st floor)
12.10 - 12.30	Closing of the online-conference	UdSU Library Assembly Hall (1 st floor)
October, 29 (Tuesday)
ANNIVERSARY EVENTS
13.40 - 14.00	Opening of Exhibition “Hungarian Children’s Books Illustrations” (2000-2017) (under support of the Hungarian Cultural Center in Moscow)	UdSU Library Lobby (3d floor)	Exhibition is supported by the Hungarian Cultural Center in Moscow. Exhibited pieces represent the cityscape and the nature in it. Mainly they depict Budapest as a changing and dynamic city.
14.00 – 16.00	Round-Table Conference “International Dialogue in Modern Education”	UdSU Library Assembly Hall (1 st floor)	The round-table conference is dedicated to 30 th anniversary of the UdSU’s international affairs and the 25 th anniversary of the UdSU partnership with the Keimyung University (Republic of Korea), University of Szeged (Hungary), University of Granada (Spain), University of Helsinki (Finland). Delegations from the University of Granada (Spain) and University of Helsinki (Finland) are among the VIP speakers at the round-table. - Greeting speech by Galina V. Merzlyakova, UdSU Rector and Professor.

			- Greeting speech by L.N. Buranova, Minister of Udmurt Republic National (Ethnic) Policy - Greeting speech by S.M. Bolotnikova, Minister of Udmurt Republic Education and Science - Speech by prof. Pilar Aranda Ramirez, Rector of University of Granada - Speech by Dorothy Kelly, Vice-rector for internationalization of University of Granada - Speech by Mari Saraheimo, professor from University of Helsinki
16.30 – 18.00	Cultural Program of International Week-2019	UdSU Library Lobby (2 nd floor)	The cultural program of the International Week is represented by performances (folk music, songs and dances) of UdSU students, amateur artists of National and Cultural Associations of Udmurtia, the Hungarian musician Helga Debreczeni-Kis. Among the guests of the event are representatives of the university administration, institutes and veterans of international cooperation development of Udmurt State University, video congratulations from international partners.
October, 30 (Wednesday)
10.00 - 12.00	Intellectual challenge “Udmurtia: My Path to Success” (for schoolchildren of Udmurtia)	UdSU Library Room 206	Winners of the regional stage of the Intellectual challenge will get an opportunity to visit “Hungarian Musical Instruments” Workshop hosted by UdSU Institute of Udmurt Philology, Finno-Ugric Studies and Journalism and the Hungarian musician Helga Debreczeni Kis. The Intellectual challenge is held among 5-7 grades’ schoolchildren of Udmurtia and contains intellectual contests in such spheres as Udmurt geography and biology, and economic affairs.
15.30 - 17.00	Student Cultural Event “The Korean Wave at UdSU”	UdSU Library Room 206, 2 nd floor lobby	The event is dedicated to the 25 th anniversary of the partnership between UdSU and Keimyung University (Republic of Korea). The event is hosted by students of both the universities and supported by the UdSU International and Public Relations Office. Participants will get to know about the Republic of Korea, Keimyung University, and alumni of student exchanges will share their international experiences. The event offers different workshops on traditional games, clothes, martial arts, and the Korean language. At the end of the event something really interesting is planned!

October, 31 (Thursday)
10.00 - 12.00	Workshop for UdSU Students “Resources of Modern Language Learning”	UdSU Library Room 410	The workshop is for both linguistic and non-linguistic students and presents psychological aspects of learning foreign languages. The lecturer - Assistant professor of Institute of Language and Literature, Regina Sh. Tshermokina - focuses on interactive methods of breaking boundaries in the process of language learning, and methods of perfecting speaking and writing skills. The workshop contains didactic games, a quest, and on-line excursion in the world of emotions.
12.10 - 13.40	Information Seminar “International Relations at UdSU and Institute of History and Sociology” (for 1st-year students of UdSU Institute of History and Sociology)	Campus bld. II Room 413	For students interested in gaining international experience and studying abroad, UdSU institutes organize information seminars with the aim of presenting the international activities of the institute and the university with the participation of international students and participants in international academic mobility programs.
15.30 - 17.00	Information Seminar “Easy to Go Abroad!” (for 1st-year students of UdSU Institute of Natural Sciences)	Campus bld. I Room 229
November, 1 (Friday)
13.50 – 15.20	Presentation of International Mobility Programs (for 1st year students of UdSU Institute of Languages and Literature)	Campus bld. I Room 319

* UdSU Science Library is located at the address: Izhevsk, 4B Lomonosov Str.