

You could contact me:

sziraki.zsofia@gmail.com

Institute of Udmurt Philology, Finno-Ugric Studies and Journalism; department of General and Finno-Ugric Linguistics

Campus bld.2, room 209

Hello! My name is Zsófia Sziráki. I am from Hungary. I work as a lecturer of Hungarian language in the Udmurt State University from September 2014. My home institution is the Institute Balassi in Hungary, Budapest. The courses I am giving are: Practical Hungarian Language, History of Hungarian language, Lexicology of Hungarian language, Grammar of Hungarian language and Hungarian Cultural Studies.

My education:

2012- : PhD studies in folklore and literature of Uralic peoples (ELTE, Budapest)

2009-2012: MA studies in Uralic language studies (ELTE, Budapest)

2006-2009: BA studies in Hungarian literature and linguistics and Finno-Ugric linguistics (ELTE, Budapest)

2007-2011: supplementary studies of Udmurt language and culture (UDSU, Izhevsk) and Finnish language and culture (University of Helsinki)

Work experience:

Sept. 2014- : university lecturer (UDSU, Izhevsk)

Main interests:

Folklore, mythology of Uralic peoples

Ethnography of Uralic peoples

Traditional healing methods of Udmurts

Hobbies:

needlework, bobbin lace, travelling, reading, Hungarian folkdance and folksongs